

MEDICAL EXAM

Medical examinations are required by U.S. Public Health Service regulations. Applicants should schedule their medical exams for at least five working days before their visa interview. The applicant must choose a doctor from the list below and call to make an appointment. At the exam, you must present your appointment letter and passport.

The cost of the medical exam for adults 15 and over is S/.300 (which includes exam and lab fees). For children 14 and under, the fee is S/.180. Please pay with exact change in Peruvian Nuevo Soles) on the day of the exam at the doctor's office. The examination includes a complete physical checkup, pulmonary x-ray, blood test and other examinations as requested by the doctor.

Vaccines: The vaccinations listed below must be current -- or the doctor must certify that the vaccination is medically inappropriate -- before a visa can be issued. The doctor will verify that vaccinations are up-to-date, but vaccinations are only performed for an additional charge.

NOTE: New vaccinations must be certified by one of the doctors listed below. Please DO NOT obtain vaccinations before seeing one of our doctors.
